

Adam Salomon De Friedberg Apprentice Trades Scholarship 2026

Tacora Resources is proud to announce the Adam Salomon De Friedberg Apprentice Trades Scholarship. This award supports individuals pursuing skilled trades careers within the mining industry. This award reflects Tacora's commitment to developing a skilled, qualified workforce and encouraging the next generation of apprentices and journeypersons trades across Newfoundland and Labrador.

Scholarship Amount

Tacora will award one (1) scholarship award valued at $5,000 for the 2026/2027 academic year.

Guidelines apply for fund disbursement

Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Entering or currently enrolled in a first year of a full time Apprenticeship Trades Program in the fall of 2026.
- Attending a recognized academic institution located in Newfoundland and Labrador, offering a program relevant to the mining industry.
- Maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the award period.

Selection Criteria

Applications will be assessed based on the following:

- Enrollment in a full-time skilled trades program related to the mining sector
- Proof of enrollment from a recognized academic institution
- Preference may be given to:
 - o Dependents of Tacora Resources employees or guardians
 - o Applicants residing in the Labrador West Region
- Commitment to the mining trades with Newfoundland and Labrador
- Submission of Personal letter outlining:
 - o Career choice and trade selection
 - o Relevant work or volunteer experience
 - o Personal achievements
 - o Long term career aspirations

Applicants may receive this award only once and are not eligible for multiple scholarships under this program.

Application Deadline:

Tuesday, July 14, 2026

How to Apply

Interested applicants should apply online via the below link:

www.TacoraResources.com/Scholorships/